

Integrating care in cardiorenal medicine

Friday 4th October 2019

The King's Fund, 11 Cavendish Square, London W1A 0AX

SESSION 1. IMPROVING OUTCOMES IN CHRONIC DISEASES

Welcome: Chair: Lisa Anderson, Consultant Cardiologist, (St George's Hospital, London)

09.35 Diabetes and cardiorenal disease: insult added to injury

Peter Winocour, Consultant Physician and Clinical Director for Diabetes and Endocrine Services (East and North Hertfordshire NHS Trust)

Discussion

10.00 A renal perspective; Giving CREDENCE to LEADERS in the field

David Lappin, Consultant Nephrologist (Galway University Hospitals, Ireland)

Discussion

10.20 A cardiology perspective: Treating the CVD patient with diabetes- what do I do?

Mark Petrie, Professor of Cardiology (University of Glasgow, Glasgow)

Discussion

10.40 Coffee break

SESSION 2. CARDIORENAL TRIALS UPDATE

Chair: Philip Kalra, Professor of Renal Medicine (University of Manchester) and Consultant Nephrologist (Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust)

11.10 a) Nephrology trials

Iain MacDougall, Professor of Clinical Nephrology (King's College Hospital, London)

Discussion

11.30 b) Cardiology trials

Geraint Morton, Consultant Cardiologist (Queen Alexandra Hospital, Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust, Portsmouth)

Discussion

SESSION 3. FUTURE CARE

Chairs: TBC

12.00 Dreams and realities of new genetics

Peter Conlon, Consultant in Nephrology and Renal Transplantation (Beaumont Hospital, Dublin, Ireland)

Discussion

12.30 The British Geriatrics Society – CV Forum Lecture: Manage frailty effectively or manage decline – your choice

Nigel Beckett, Consultant Physician in Geriatric and GIM (Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, London)

Discussion

13.00 Lunch break

SESSION 4. CLINICAL CHALLENGES

Chair: Paul Kalra, Consultant Cardiologist (Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust); Ted McDermott, Consultant Urologist (Tallaght and St James Hospitals, Dublin, Ireland)

14.00 The great debate: The high risk cardiovascular disease patient – Who seeks them out and treats them best?

– Answer... the cardiologist

Derek Connolly, Consultant Cardiologist (Sandwell and West Birmingham Hospitals NHS Trust)

– Answer... the lipid specialist/endocrinologist

Handrean Soran, Consultant Physician and Endocrinologist (Manchester University NHS Foundation Trust, Manchester)

Discussion

14.45 Assessing cardiovascular risk prior to renal transplantation

Durger Kanigkheria, Renal Physician (Manchester Royal Infirmary, Manchester)

Discussion

15.10 British Heart Foundation Lecture: Diabetic cardiomyopathy – advances in understanding

Gerry McCann, Professor of Cardiac Imaging, Honorary Consultant Cardiologist (University of Leicester and NIHR Leicester Cardiovascular BRU, Leicester)

Discussion

15.40 Tea break

SESSION 5. MATERNAL HEALTH

Chair: TBC

16.00 Pregnancy in women with cardiorenal disease – priorities for practice

Kate Bramham, Nephrologist (King's College Hospital, London)

Discussion

SESSION 6. INTERACTIVE CLINICAL CASES IN CARDIORENAL DISEASE

Chair: David Mulcahy, Consultant Cardiologist (Tallaght University Hospital, Dublin, Ireland)

16.30 i) Amyloid

Carol Whelan, Consultant Cardiologist (Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust, London)

16.55 ii) Anticoagulation in multimorbidity

Ameenathul Fawzy, Clinical Research Fellow (Institute of Cardiovascular Sciences, University of Birmingham, Birmingham)

17.15 Close

6 CPD credits to be applied for from the Royal College of Physicians

Past meetings endorsed by the Renal Association, the Irish Nephrology Society and the British Society for Heart Failure.

Early bird registration fee with lunch and refreshments: £100 doctors, £60 concessions, £200 commercial organisations